SECONDS TO PLAY CONCEPTION HERE

FANS CAN SEE ARMISTICE DAY GAME, AFTER ALL.

FIRST TEAM AT BETHANY

Battle Here Will Be Deciding One, as Each Team Has Won One Game.

With both the High School and College football teams of "regulars" playing away from home tomorrow, Maryville fans will depend on the second team of the High School to provide them with Armistice Day thrills in their third battle with the Conception College team, which will come here for a game on the College gridiron.

The High School yearlings and the college youths have already met twice on the football field. Both were played at Conception, and both decided by one-point margins. The first was a victory for the yanigans, 19-18, and the second resulted in a 13-12 win for the Collegians.

The High School first team will go to Bethany, leaving at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning in cars. They will stop a short time in Albany, arriving in Bethany about noon.

Bethany is reported to have a strong team this year, defeating King City by a much larger score than did Maryville. Coach Ziegler's team will be severely crippled by the loss of both regular tackles, Masters and Sam England, who are suffering with sprained ankles. Captain Carstens and Ogden, regular ends, also have minor injuries, but will start the game.

Ledgerwood, Eaton and Blagg are the most likely candidates for the vacant tackles positions. At guard, Coach Ziegler will choose from Jones, Hartman and Curfman, and will start Hall as center. The backfield will be picked from Willoughby, Barry, O'Banion, Ellis and Howell England. Fannon is a utility man who may be used either in the backfield or at end.

The drawing on reserve material to fill first team positions will leave the second team with a somewhat weakened line-up to face the College team from Conception. Bush will start at center. Two guards will be picked from Cook, Herndon and Epperson, and tackles from Milroy, Tulloch and Mountjoy. Godsey, Wright and Landfather are the leading aspirants for end positions, and the backfield will be picked from Chick, Isaac Miller, Harold Miller, Phipps and Smith.

The High School Yanigans are outweighed about twenty-five pounds to the man by the College aggregation, but superior training has given them an almost equal advantage in the first two games. The College play is built around Fullback Miller, an individual star who is likely to break away for a long run at any time The yearlings' play has not been sensational, but they have made steady gains through the much heavier line.

SATURDAY EVENING POST QUOTES CHARLES HAINES

Brother of Harvey L. Haines Breaks Into Country's Most Widely Circulated Magazine

In this week's Saturday Evening Post is an advertisement for the Country Gentleman in which is used a picture of Charles Haines of Sabetha, Kan., a brother of Harvey L. Haines of this city.

The advertisement contains a statement from the Sabetha merchant that "the farm families in our trade territory have greater buying power than those living in town." Continuing, Mr. Haines said: "Our trade comes from a radius of sixty miles, three-fourths of it with farmers. They ask the best, because their reading had made them familiar with standard lines of goods, and if you don't carry them they will drive elsewhere.

"That is why nationally advertised goods sell faster and easier than those which have to be introduced over the counter.

"The time is here when the same principles that make a success of a big city store will apply in a country town."

"Why do they hold Thanksgiving in late November," asked little Billy Scrooge.

"Because it probably dawned just then, on the inventor of the holiday that Christmas comes but once a year," growled his father.—Farm Life

SECOND SUIT IS FILED AGAINST MINERS UNION

Issues The Same As In Case Which Caused Recent Strike Threat By Miners

Charleston, Nov. 10—The hearing of the plea of the Borderland Coal company and sixty-three other operators for an injunction restraining the United Mine workers from attempts to organize the Mingo and Logan County coal fields and seeking relief from the "check-off" system was begun in district court this afternoon. The issues involved are identical with those in the case recently decided by Federal Judge Anderson at Indianapolis and which caused the strike of about thirty thousand miners.

PASS FIFTY YEARS OF LIFE TOGETHER

MR. AND MRS. J. W. SHIPPS CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

MOVED HERE IN 1874

Thirty Years Were Spent On Farm Near Maryville—All of Nine Children Present

Yesterday was an important occasion in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shipps, who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home, 726 West First Street. A gold and white color scheme was carried out in the house decorations, developed with chrysanthemums, and similar colors prevailed in the delicious buffet luncheon which was served at noon. Many were the felicitations received by Mr. and Mrs. Shipps, and they were remembered with numerous gifts, which were sent by relatives and friends. The afternoon was spent in singing old fashioned songs, music by the home orchestra and an Edison and reminiscenses of the days gone by. There were sixty-one relatives present.

J. W. Shipps and Mary B. Heisler were married on November 9, 1871, in Lathrop, Mo. Both had recently moved from Carroll County, Ohio, where they were reared. In 1874 they moved to Nodaway County and resided on a farm, five miles south of Maryville, for thirty years, moving to their present home in Maryville in 1917.

Mr. Shipps and his bride of fifty years have seen remarkable changes in modes of travel and living conditions. When moving to this county with wagons and teams it required two days to make the trip from Plattsburg. At the present time, with cars, it requires less than one-fourth the time. Living conditions have improved even more, from oil lamps and an occasional mail to electricity and city delivery.

Mr. and Mrs. Shipps, at the ages of 71 and 70 respectively, are blessed with good health, which enabled both to enjoy the exceptional gathering. They are the parents of a remarkable and accomplished family of nine children, five boys and four girls, all of whom are living, and with their families were present for the anniversary celebration. The children are Charles B. Shipps of Arkoe, Joseph T. Shipps, Lloyd A. Shipps and D. Otis Shipps of Ottawa, Kan., Mrs. Hattie Porter, Mrs. Grace Espey, Mrs. Florence Gray and Mrs. Maye Corrough of Maryville, and J. Ray Shipps of Wichita, Kan. Other relatives in attendance at the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. John A. Heisler, J. Allen Heisler, Miss Lillian Heisler, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lee, Mrs. W. A. Holverstott, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Heisler, Mrs. A. E. Hartzell, Leslie Hartzell, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shoemaker, J. A. Henderson, R. A. Shoemaker, all of Plattsburg, Mrs. Charles Kelley of Garnett, Kan., and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Yahrmark of Maryville.

A number of former neighbors joined the gathering last night, and the happy scene of fifty years ago was re-enacted in a mock wedding.

C. OF C. PICTURES SHOWN AT MARTHA WASHINGTON

At the community meeting at the Martha Washington school house last evening, the Chamber of Commerce films were shown. The State Teacher's College flag film was also shown. A short program preceded the showing of the pictures. Those in attendance at the meeting from Maryville were R. P. Hosmer, George A. Pickens, Ralph Marcell, James Todd, Fred Diss, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holt, Miss Brown.

". . . . I, Warren G. Harding, President of the United States of America, do hereby call upon all devout and patriotic citizens of the United States to pause from their accustomed occupations and labors on Friday, the eleventh day of November next, from twelve o'clock noon to two minutes past that hour for a period of silent prayer of thanks to the Giver of all good . . . . and of supplication for His Divine mercy and for His blessings upon our beloved country. . . . ."

CONCEPTION AND GUILFORD READY

TOWNSHIPS ORGANIZE FOR RED CROSS ROLL CALL.

SENDING SUPPLIES TODAY

Buttons, Window Service Flags and Special Literature Will Be Used in Campaign.

As the time approaches for the County Red Cross Roll Call, which will be November 13, 14 and 15, news continues to come in to the county committee of the organization of townships for the work of the Roll Call.

Lee Stowell, editor of the Conception Courier, has taken the leadership in Conception Junction and Jefferson township. In speaking of plans he says, "I will probably get some of the older school folks, and some men for the canvass." He has been giving the Red Cross work good publicity in his paper.

In Guilford, Charles C. Reynolds and Carl Wray are the leading spirits of the committee. They are much taken with the public health work that Mrs. Eva Hackney, the county nurse,, is doing in the schools. Guilford has also sent a baby over to the baby clinic. In Guilford the branch committee organization has been kept more intact that in some other places, and when they learn of cases in which the County Red Cross can help, Mrs. Hackney or Miss Betty Turner are notified.

Supplies for the Roll Call are going out today, such as buttons, window service flags and some special Nodaway county Red Cross facts. With these in hand, the township chairmen will be ready for the Roll Call when it opens next Sunday afternoon.

Today or tomorrow the county committee expects to receive definite word of the organization of the few townships that have not yet been heard from.

MRS. CATHERINE MORRIS DIES AT DAUGHTER'S HOME

Old Resident of County Would Have Been 77 Years Old this December

Mrs. Catherine Morris died at 11:30 o'clock last night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Herndon, 418 West First Street, following a prolonged illness. She had made her home with her daughter in Maryville for several years, and had been bedfast for seven months.

Mrs. Morris would have reached her seventy-seventh year December 8. She came to Missouri from Pennsylvania about forty-three years ago, locating on a farm, eight miles east of Parnell, where she resided until her removal to Maryville. Four daughters and one son survive her. They are Mrs. Herndon, Mrs. W. A Berg and Mrs. J. W. Evans of Maryville, and Mrs. A. G. McKean of Phillips, S. Dak., and Frank Morris of Parnell. Mr. Morris has been dead about thirty years.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Oxford church, six miles east of Parnell, conducted by the Rev. W. F. Wiley. Burial will be in the Oxford cemetery. The body will lie in state from 9 to 11 o'clock tomorrow morning at the Herndon residence.

PRESIDENT MAY PARDON DEBS ON THANKSGIVING

Harding Also Considers Clemency For Other Political Prisoners In U. S. Prisoners

Washington, Nov. 10.—Eugene Debs, socialist leader now serving a sentence in the Atlanta federal prison for obstructing the draft, may be freed Thanksgiving Day by executive clemency, it was learned from an authoritative source today. It is understood President Harding also will free other political prisoners.

No Paper Tomorrow

As tomorrow is Armistice Day there will be no issue of the Democrat-Forum that day.

A UNION SERVICE FOR THANKSGIVING

BUT WILL BE HELD THIS YEAR ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT

MAY REPEAT PAGEANT

Collection Will Be taken For Welfare Board Which Is Already In Debt

At a special called meeting of the Ministers' Association this morning, it was decided to hold a union Thanksgiving service on the Wednesday night before Thanksgiving Day. The Thanksgiving service has formerly been held on the morning of Thanksgiving Day, but such a small number have attended that it was decided to try the experiment.

The Rev. J. A. Cooper moved that the Association request the Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church to repeat the pageant "America's Striking Hour" on this occasion, with an offering to be taken to go to the Maryville Welfare Board. It is expected that the Welfare Board will have urgent need for funds this year, and the thought was that at such a service it might be possible to secure a generous offering. The board is now heavily in debt.

A committee consisting of the Rev. Mr. Cooper and the Rev. S. P. Allison was appointed to confer with the Westminster Guild. In case the Guild should find it impossible to give the pageant again, this same committee is to make other arrangements for the union Thanksgiving service.

The Westminster Guild pageant has been twice given with remarkable success. It was presented on two successive Sunday nights in the Presbyterian church, and on each occasion there were many who were unable to find standing room.

PLOT TO ASSASSINATE MARSHAL FOCH IS FOILED

Secret Service Causes Detour of French General's Train at Philadelphia

Pittsburg, Nov. 10—Marshal Foch arrived here shortly after 9 o'clock. His party was shifted from the Pennsylvania station through Braddock, a suburb, after the secret service had been advised by the American Legion that an attack might be made against the distinguished soldier. It is the general impression that radicals had planned to assassinate Foch.

FINAL REHEARSAL FOR V.F.W. PLAY

ACTORS ARE READY TO GO BEFORE FOOTLIGHTS.

WILL BE FIVE SOLOISTS

The Rev. J. A. Cooper Will Give "Just a Moment's Reminder of Armistice Day."

A final dress rehearsal will be held tonight for amateur production which will be presented tomorrow night at the Empire theater by the Seth Ray David Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The finishing touches were put on the production several days ago, and the actors are only awaiting the time set for their public appearance.

The program will be in two parts, the first a five reel feature motion picture, "When We Were Twenty-One," featuring H. B. Warner as the best dressed man in motion pictures, and the second a musical farce comedy, "All on a Summer's Day."

Among the guests at a summer hotel, one couple especially claims attention—both the man and the woman being young and exceedingly attractive, but mysterious from the fact that all attempts to establish intimacy fail and because the man publicly is often indifferent and even harsh to the woman.

Various theories as to their identity are advanced, and it is even suspected that they are two clever thieves who are even then being tracked. After great cleverness on the part of the real thief and great efforts by the suspected pair to extricate themselves from the difficulty, it is discovered that they are bride and groom who have chosen this way of avoiding public attention and who have hoped by studied indifference and harshness on the man's part to carry out their joke and still have an uninterrupted honeymoon.

Miss Lota Claire Landfather takes the part of the bride, and Gordon Roach is the bridegroom. Mayme Grems and Margaret Dietz are summer girls; Iola Dysart is Miss Parker, an advocate of suffrage; Lorena Fenton is Miss Trimble, a bridge fiend, and Mrs. Blaine Archer is Mrs. Reed, a delusion and a snare. Lee Meek has the role of Tom Warner, Dorette's fiance, and Wesley Hagins is Bob Doyle, Tom's friend. John Price is Rafferty, a plain clothes man.

Soloists who will appear during the play are Mrs. Arch Carter, Miss Hilda Denny and Miss Celesta Holtum. A Tony Blatter and Walter Nixson will give musical specialties. Schumacher's orchestra, with Miss Mary Carpenter at the piano, will play. The overture will begin at 8:15 o'clock.

The Rev. Joseph A. Cooper will give "just a moment's reminder of Armistice Day."

The chorus includes Misses Celeste Holton, Sterrill Bishop, Etta Trusty, Grace Dietz, Adaline Dysart, Martha Kennedy, Justine Fraser, Hilda Denny, Katherine Wallace, Margaret Remus, Daisy Allen, Grace Ferritor and Faye Hornbuckle.

Recovering From Operation

Mrs. LeRoy Johnson who lives north of Maryville and who underwent a serious operation Monday morning at the Sisters hospital in St. Joseph is resting easier at this writing.

TO PAY HONOR TO NAMELESS MARTYR

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES AT ARLINGTON TOMORROW

BODY IN CAPITOL TODAY

Unknown Hero Represents All of America's Honored Soldier Dead

Washington, Nov. 10—Moving reverently through the shadow of the rotunda of the national Capitol, the grayhaired mothers, high government officials, battle scarred war veterans, and envoys of the world's powers today paid homage at the bier of America's nameless hero.

Beneath a mountain of laurel and roses he slept the endless sleep, reposing upon the catalfalque which has borne Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley, until he shall be buried tomorrow at Arlington National Cemetery as a symbol of the love and gratitude of a mighty nation for her honored dead. Only the wreath placed there by the President of the United States rested on the simple oaken casket this morning.

Thousands today filed through the rotunda, offering silent prayers. Tears of the nation's profound sorrow glistened in many eyes as high and low estate mingled in an endless human stream.

No one was denied admission. There were titled men from other shores and famous men from home; there were doughboys and doughboys' mothers, there were girls and little children, there were men of all estates. Hundreds brought floral pieces to add to the sea of flowers that lent a sweet aroma to the chamber that held the honored dead.

Around the catafalque, the same whereon there lay in state the bodies of our martyred Presidents—Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley—stood a body guard of four—a soldier, a sailor, a Marine and a member of the National Guard.

Tomorrow the nameless martyr will join his comrades in the ranks of Arlington's pale batallion of the dead, while the mighty of many nations stand with uncovered heads at his grave.

Never has so grand and so simple a ceremony marked the burial of a man until this third Armistice Day—when the President of the United States, two former Presidents, the Premier of a kingdom, the Premier of a sister republic, generals of great armies, admirals of titan fleets, and a host of the world's most brilliant men and women will march to Arlington and stand in the Memorial Amphitheatre and give tribute to the unknown hero dead.

Here is a new argument against good roads. J. T. Smith of New London, Missouri, fell off a wagon loaded with hogs. Two wheels passed over his face, according to the report, but, on account of the mud, his head was not crushed. However, had the roads been better, perhaps he wouldn't have fallen off the wagon.

Forumettes

There's a bachelor attorney down at Maryville who had better eat lots of pickels; in fact, better bathe in brine daily to ward off the love attack that is gnawing at his heart-strings. When a man with a perfectly good head that is occupied with plenty of grey matter leaves a Super Six Hudson standing for three days in the street, he's surely head over heels in love for nothing else would be capable of making him so forget himself.—Hopkins Journal.

It is poor policy to judge what the average Maryville man knows from his knowing look.

"Stack of Wheats" is a cry one hears many times in the morning in Maryville restaurants these days. Some add sausage to make the old fashioned breakfast complete.

A Maryville man was heard to ask what has become of the fellow who in the old B. P. days who would ask for a certain brand of liquor in a saloon or go without a drink. "Now he drinks anything" he observes.

Turkey day is scarcely three weeks away. Wonder what alibi dealers will have for the high price of the festal bird this year.

A glance in the stores shows that tan pongee is the newest material for men's shirts and women's blouses.

Embryo acrobats in Maryville got their fall workout this year. A high pile of leaves raked near a low shed served as a life net. Many were the flip-flops and backers that the lads turned.

Uncle Abner says this is a strange world. While everybody praises economy they hate a tight wad.

The New $25 bill is to bear Roosevelt's picture, it is not the picture which worries the average Maryville man however.

A representative of a chautauqua circuit visited Clearmont in an endeavor to interest the citizens in behalf of his organization for the next season. He called on a prominent lawyer, and on introducing himself said, "I have called to see you about a chautauqua. "Nothing doing" replied the attorney, "my wife and I have decided on a Ford."

RUM FOR RHEUMATISM NEW ONE ON "HIZZONER"

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 10—Yo! ho! and a bottle of rum—if you have rheumatism. But it's a very poor gag to pull on the Judge.

George Svast pulled it. He declared to Federal Judge Faris here that the jug of "mule" found by officers in his home was used to rub on "rheumatic spots."

"That's a new one on me," declared Judge Faris, "but I expect to learn a lot before I get through with this Eighteenth Amendment. Your fine will be $200 and costs."

Last Word in Honesty

Morgantown, W. Va., Nov. 10—Mrs. H. M. Farrell, sixty-eight, worried over an unpaid bill of $1.50 for forty-nine years. Then she came to this city from her home in Pittsburgh to pay the bill contracted when she was a young girl attending school here with the firm of George M. Jones & Co. She had an account with the store and left the city owing $1.50, which debt, she said, she could not dismiss from her mind. Mr. John, head of the firm, is still living though no longer actively connected with the store. She hunted him up at his home and paid the bill.

EUROPE JUSTIFIES ARMAMENT PARLEY

TREATIES HAVE FAILED TO RESTORE PEACE.

ENGLISHMAN GIVES VIEWS

Secretary of Labor Party Says Economic Revival Has Been Retarded by Blundering.

By Earle C. Reeves
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

London, Nov. 10.—Europe's economic condition today is abundant evidence in justification of the disarmament conference in Washington, if such is needed.

Social unrest, famine, disease, death and political disturbances have been Europe's lot since the war ended. A return to normalcy has been retarded by the Allied Council, and what is needed is a policy of international co-operation, with freedom of trading, to restore confidence and give democratic development a chance.

These are some of the arguments put forth by Arthur Henderson, M. P., secretary of the British Labor party, in a recent expression of his views.

Other prominent Englishmen, such as Lord Cowdray, G. Holt Thomas, England's noted aeroplane builder; Lord Grey, Ramsey McDonald, another member of the Labor party, and Hon. J. M. Kenworthy, M. P., give varied views with regard to the conference and its success or failure.

Following is Mr. Henderson's recent speech regarding the conference, in part together with the views of other Englishmen:

By Arthur Henderson, M. P.
Secretary of the British Labor Party.

If justification is needed for the Washington conference it is abundantly evident in the condition of Europe today. The Peace Conference and later the Supreme Council have failed to bring appeasement to Europe. In vast areas of Europe there now exist a set of conditions only slightly less menacing than war itself.

That economic crisis has been intensified by Allied blundering. Such blundering has caused political dis turbance, social unrest, famine, want, disease and death, and all this three years after war has ceased.

The whole tendency of the Allied Council has been to retard the urgently necessary economic revival of Europe. What was needed was a policy of international co-operation, with freedom of trading and commercial intercourse consistent with the fullest democratic development.

Disarmament Practical.

On the question of disarmament public opinion has, I think, been greatly changed by the war. There is a strong body of public opinion in this country in favor of it. Disarmament is now considered a practical policy and world peace a desirable end to work for. Such men who are attending the Washington conference think that, and one therefore hopes that success will attend the discussion and its results be more peace-making than those of the Paris conference.

I devoutly hope that the disarmament will be the chief aim of all the delegates. But I have my fears of the financial side of the question. That situation might provide the strongest argument against disarmament.

Take the case of Great Britain, where we are maintaining this year an army of 350,000 men at a cost of $530,000,000, whereas in 1913 we had an army of 186,000 and we only spent $140,000,000. In 1913 the army had an estimate of $2,400,000 for an air force; now it is $95,000,000. On the navy we are spending this year $412,395,000, and in 19.2 we only spent $235,000,000.

Nations Armed to Teeth.

Even after the League of Nations had been started the principal nations of the world were arming themselves to the teeth. All preparing for future wars. What can be done to stop this waste? Can the Washington conference do it? Remember, they will be faced by the same difficulties which beset the League of Nations, and that is that armaments depend upon policy.

If the governments go to Washington with a genuine desire to decrease the expenditure on armaments they must go with a considered policy. Such policy to make the need of armaments less urgent. One cannot expect to save on armaments if an international policy demanded for its effectiveness the use or the threat of military force.

The policy that will most closely affect the Washington conference is the question of China. Our responsibilities as citizens of Great Britain are responsibilities for our agents, the British government, and we must tell the British government that whatever other governments might do we must keep our hands clean. * * * *

Unless an effective instrument for the world's peace is evolved from the Washington conference we shall return to the old vicious expenditure on armaments and that will undoubtedly lead to war. With a new international order established we can enter upon a new era of world fellowship which would enable the different countries to complete the task of social and economic reconstruction.

By Viscount Grey
Former British Ambassador to Washington.

The American people for reasons which we regret but understand, have decided to remain outside the League. The question of the Pacific particularly the North Pacific, could not possibly be dealt with without the American government. While the American government remains outside, that question, and the difficult questions connected with it, cannot possibly be dealt with effectively by the League.

The object of the Washington conference is the same sort of object as that for which the League exists. I believe that in summoning the conference the American government has not as its motive any special national interest.

I believe it is absolutely sincere and single-minded. It has summoned it for no national advantage except the advantage in which every country will share if the Pacific questions are settled and a diminution of expenditures in armaments results.

By Ramsay McDonald
British Labor Leader.

It is impossible to look forward to the Washington conference without some trembling, because there is a real fear that the men who will meet there will approach the problems from a pre-war military point of view. That point of view cannot make for what must be made the real object of the Washington conference.

We have no use for treaties of peace that are merely a thin veneer for the points of bayonets.

My only hope about Washington is based on a difficult and even dangerous state of mind among the peoples of Europe today. I think this condition of mind may influence the delegates to get away from some of their merely militaristic ideas. Good service to the cause of disarmament might be done by a campaign to awaken and inflame the people's minds with the idealism behind disarmament.

Only by getting up a wave of public opinion strong enough to insist on the issues being approached can we hope to see from Washington the first steps towards harvesting of the great blessings of disarmament.

Prayer for Permanent Peace to Be Said on Armistice Day

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 10.—The prayer that follows has been prepared and issued by the Family Altar League of America to be said in the two-minute period proclaimed by President Harding for noon tomorrow, in memory of the fallen soldiers of the world war and on behalf of the assembled peace conference.

The prayer:

"Thou Eternal God, who hast made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, grant us that the peace we commemorate this day shall endure forever. Help us, in the day of thy power, to beat into plowshare and pruninghook the arms we so lately laid down. Let the birds make their nests in our useless cannon and the grass grow upon our crumbling fortresses. Bless and establish the work of them that survive to banish from thy world for all time the dread menace of war.

"In fulfillment of thine ancient promise, wipe away all tears from the eyes of them that still weep for their soldier dead; and cleanse from all hearts the bitterness of conflict. Bring and bind together thy children of the families of earth in a new brotherhood of kindliness and good will, man toward man and nation toward nation, until 'East and West' is no more.

"These things we ask of thee, through thy infinite love and unfailing mercy, for the sake of all those that war has made to suffer and for every home that war has darkened, so that their sacrifice shall not have been in vain. In the name of him who came to bring his peace to earth and good will toward men, amen."

TO PERFECT ORGANIZATION FOR ITASCA PARK HIGHWAY

Chamber of Commerce Receives Invitation to Send Delegate to Convention at Spencer, Ia.

For the purpose of perfecting a permanent organization to be known as the "Itasca Park Highway Association," a convention has been called to convene at Spencer, Ia., on November 23, by K. D. Cross of Savannah, president of the preliminary organization made several weeks ago.

Announcement of the convention and an invitation to send a delegate or delegates, was received by the Maryville Chamber of Commerce this morning. The matter will be brought before the board of directors and a delegate will probably be named to attend the meeting.

The convention will take up for consideration the perfection of a permanent highway association, the method of perfecting an organization in each town and city on the route, a budget of expense, the route of the highway, and marking and advertising.

H. D. Judson, an engineer for the St. Joseph Automobile Club, on a scouting trip over the proposed highway from St. Joseph to International Falls, Minn., found good interest in the project on the part of fifty-five towns located on the route. It furnishes a direct route, almost straight north to the Canadian line, and there is a possibility that it may later be extended southward and made a north-to-south transcontinental highway.

Mrs. George Brinkley of San Antonio, Texas, arrived in Maryville Tuesday night to visit her mother, Mrs. Mary Wyatt Moore.

"Why—the sun of course" you will say. But remember—you can hold the cent so close to your eye that you lose sight of the sun.

Some baking powders can be bought for a few pennies less than Calumet — but don't hold these cents too close to your eyes—you will not be able to see the quality —the purity—the dependability of

CALUMET
BAKING POWDER

In other words, don't be deceived by a few pennies — the cheapest baking powder in price is often the most expensive.

When you buy Calumet you know that it will produce pure, sweet, and wholesome bakings. You know that you use less because it contains more than the ordinary leavening strength.

YOUNG GIRLS NEED CARE

Mothers! Watch Your Daughters' Health

Health Is Happiness

From the time a girl reaches the age of twelve until womanhood is established she needs all the care the thoughtful mother can give.

The condition that the girl is then passing through is so critical and may have such far-reaching effects upon her future happiness and health that it is almost criminal for a mother or guardian to withhold counsel or advice.

Many a woman has suffered years of prolonged pain and misery through having been the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance on the part of those who should have guided her through the dangers and difficulties that beset this period.

Mothers should teach their girls what danger comes from standing around with cold or wet feet, from lifting heavy articles, and from overworking. Do not let her overstudy. If she complains of headache, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, make life easier for her. She needs thoughtful care for a few years.

In all such cases Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be given as it is especially adapted for such conditions. It contains nothing that can injure and can be taken in perfect safety.

Read how Mrs. Eicher helped her daughter. She says:

"At the age of sixteen my daughter was having trouble every month. She had pains across her back and in her sides. Every month her back would pain her so she could not do her work and would have to lie down. My married daughter recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I read the books which were left at my door. She took it faithfully and is now regular and has no pain. We recommend the Vegetable Compound and give you permission to publish this letter in your little books and in the newspapers."—Mrs. KATIE EICHER, 4034 N. Fairhill St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Williams will profit by her own experience. She says:

"When I was thirteen years old I had sick spells each month and as I was very backward I would bear the pain and my mother knew nothing about it. I read in the daily paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took my own spending money and bought a bottle. It helped me so much that I took it regularly after that until I had taken two bottles and I did not have any more pain or backache and have been a healthy, strong woman. I am now 39 years old and have a little girl of my own, and when she gets old enough I shall give her none other than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. C. E. WILLIAMS, 2437 W. Toronto St., Philadelphia, Pa.

For almost fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been relieving women, young and old, of ailments peculiar to their sex. Ask your neighbor about it, for in every neighborhood there are women who know of its merits.

Thousands of letters similar to the above are in the files of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., and for years such letters have been published. Surely it is worth your while to make a fair trial of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

JAPAN LEADING "DOUBLE LIFE"

YOUNGER GENERATION HAS OCCIDENTAL MODES OF LIVING

JAP HOMES DIVIDED

Jazz Rules One Part of House, While Sedate Forms of Entertainment Prevail in Another

BY PAUL Y. EGOLF
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Philadelphia, Nov. 10. — Japan is leading a double life.

Such is the opinion of O. Toyoda, Imperial Minister of Railways of the Island Empire, who has been a visitor in Philadelphia. But the double life has no sinister meaning—rather a humorous one, for it is the product of the never-ending battle between the traditions of Nippon and the practicalities of the Occident.

Even old man High Cost of Living has invaded the Orient in quaint fashion, according to Mr. Toyoda, selecting the kimono as the prime object of attack. Once the regulation dress of every respectable Japanese, the kimona is being rapidly driven out of the islands by the American ready-made suit, which, in addition to being cheaper than the native garment, allows the wearer to work unhampered by loose-flowing folds.

Even the children are now being clothed in rompers, overhalls and other Yankee clothing, which gives the maximum amount of freedom in play combined with ease of washing.

Prefer Chairs to Mats

"But it is in other phases of home life that the clash between the old and the new is being most severely felt," said Mr. Toyoda, "Many of the younger generation have gone to school and been engaged in business in Europe and America and become accustomed while there to sitting in chairs, thereby acquiring an aversion to return to the Oriental fashion of squatting on a mat.

"As the younger person returning to Nippon will not squat, so it is equally out of the question for the older people to sit up straight in highbacked chairs and preside at tables. The solution has been found in furnishing rooms to suit both generations, which, although is separates the family at social functions, is more suitable to the needs of the persons involved. This makes for 'jazz parties' in one part of the house and dignified recreation in the other.

"The changes wrought by contact with the Occident have affected the family meal, as well, making it now practically impossible for a Japanese household to dine together.

Young Japs Like Roast Beef

"During their trips to Europe and America the younger generation have asquired a fondness for reast beef, mashed potatoes, French pastry and other articles of diet incompatible with the frugal Japanese diet of rice, egg and chicken combinations. Even tea, that firmly-rooted institution of Japanese life, is being threatened by the introduction of coffee or more exciting beverages. Again, this leads to a split in the home and necessitates the cook leading a 'double life,' unless the family is wealthy enough to employ two chefs to meet the tastes of the older folk and the younger gourmands.

In table service the conflict is again in evidence. Chopsticks for the elder; knives, forks and spoons for the younger members are seen, as well as a variety of dishes and tableware. Soup is now consumed to two melodies of different languages. Not only has the 'double-life' problem reached a point where it becomes serious in its social and economic aspect, but it forms one of the chief items in the upward march of the cost of living in the land of the Risin Sun."

PROBLEMS WHICH CONFERENCE FACES

PARLEY AT WASHINGTON MUST GO DEEP BENEATH SURFACE.

NEED MUTUAL CONFIDENCE

General Reduction of Armaments of All Nations Will Lessen Safety of None.

BY DR. SIDNEY L. GULICK
(Secretary, Commission on International Justice and Goodwill Federal Council of Churches)

ARTICLE II

Washington, Nov. 10.—If we are to reduce armament as the first step towards a warless world the nation must adopt policies that will produce worldwide feelings of mutual confidence, of national security, and of certainty of receiving just international treatment.

So long as nations are suspicious and afraid, so long as they really feel that neighbors are potential bullies and possible robbers and that their only hope of maintaining safety, of receiving due consideration and respect, and of securing justice, lies in their own right arm, there is little chance for a sweeping reduction of armaments. On the contrary increasing armaments, increasing in deadly power and in ruinous cost, will be inevitable. So long as international security, consideration and justice depend on national brute force, so long will armaments exist and grow.

What then are the major problems to be solved?

First are the problems of Justice. Is any nation really competent to know what justice requires in any case in which its own interests are involved?

As between France and Germany, for instance, each of which has suffered so much from the other during the past two centuries, is either country able to judge or appreciate what justice requires?

The problems to be solved here are the creating of suitable disinterested unprejudiced and universally trusted agencies to study the facts, to make them known to all the world, to render decisions in the light of universally accepted principles, and to ensure their acceptance.

Second are the problems of Security. Whenever a proposal for curtailment of armament is made, the question of national security at once arises—Naturally and inevitably so. It is a question that it would be sheer folly to ignore. However much our imaginations may respond to the dream of beating all our swords into plowshares, we have to face the stern realities of the actual world in which we live. Whatever we are to do, we must provide for the safety of our country.

This much of fundamental truth there is in the argument of those who insist on a program of so-called "preparedness." But as soon as one nation makes a large outlay of arms and battleships, other nations immediately do likewise. No one nation, consequently, is in a stronger position relative to the others than it was before.

Not only do armaments not afford security, but they actually create insecurity, for the competition in armaments creates an atmosphere of suspicion, distrust and rival scheming, which is the most subtile foe to peace and safety. For national security we need more than anything else the good-will and mutual confidence which are now being undermined by rival armaments.

More than this, it is not too much to say that the expenditure of vast sums upon army and navy actually weakens the defensive power of a nation, for, in a day when wars are waged not by armies but by whole peoples the defensive power of the nation lies in its economic resouces. The real strength of the nation is being drained, not added to, by an expenditure upon armament which has constantly to be replaced.

It would appear, therefore, that when the question of security is really scrutinized, a general reduction of armaments on the part of the nations would lessen the safety of none and add to the vital resources of all. For the maintenance of internal order, small armies will be necessary, but no good purpose is served by the competitive armaments of the present day.

Third are the special problems in the Pacific. The secondary problems are many and intricate. Their solution, however, is by no means impossible if the primary problems have been solved. The following may be mentioned:

1. China's Problems:
The Shantung Question.
Special "rights" and "concessions" to many nations.
"Territorial integrity" and "the open door."
Stable and orderly government.
Financial obligations to many nations.

2. Japan's Problems:
Growing economic dependence on the Asiatic mainland for food and raw material.
Need for a stable and orderly government in China that can maintain uninterrupted trade with Japan.
Growing population.
Emigration.
Demands of honor for the abolition in the West of race discriminatory legislation against Japanese and for the universal adoption of the principle of the equality of race treatment.

3. America's Problems:
Protection from Asiatic mass immigration, especially of Asiatic laborers.
Security for Pacific Island possessions, particularly the Philippines and Hiawaii.
Equality of trade opportunities in the Far East.

A TWICE-TOLD TALE.

One of Interest to Our Readers.

Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitate to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of the Maryville woman is confirmed after eight years.

Mrs. Martha Partridge, 901 E. 4th St., Maryville, says: "Some years ago I suffered from kidney and bladder complaint and I felt languid. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and received great relief and I am glad to recommend them. I cannot say too much in favor of Doan's." (Statement given December 13, 1911.) On March 31, 1920, Mrs. Partridge said: "I wish to confirm my former statement of 1911 as to the benefits obtained from using Doan's Kidney Pills. I have not had a return of the trouble and I am glad to say Doan's have permanently cured me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy — get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Partridge had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Real News of Government

THE ST. JOSEPH NEWS-PRESS tells the story of government impartially. Its dispatches from the national and state capitals, as well as its articles on local political activities are absolutely non-partisan and independent. Republicans and Democrats alike find in its news columns the true story of the activity of their parties in the great work of governing the American people.

David Lawrence, the famous correspondent, who for years served the New York Evening Post at Washington, is writing for THE NEWS-PRESS. He tells the story as he sees it, from an independent standpoint.

Having a resident Washington correspondent in addition to Mr. Lawrence, THE NEWS-PRESS dispatches from the national capital cover the whole field of political activity.

Political news of Missouri, Kansas, Iowa and Nebraska is told by careful writers without passion and without prejudice.

Missouri is to have a constitutional convention soon. Its proceedings and conclusions will be of the utmost interest; THE NEWS-PRESS will freely and impartially report them.

Getting Back to a Pre-War Basis

The St. Joseph News-Press has reduced its sale price from three cents to its pre-war price of two cents per copy. It has also reduced its mail subscription price to all points in the four neighboring states to $3.50. In view of the doubling of the second-class postage rate, this brings THE NEWS-PRESS' mail subscription below the pre-war level. It is the cheapest (as it has long been among the best) of the metropolitan dailies of this district.

THE ST. JOSEPH NEWS-PRESS
By mail, $3.50 a year, in advance, in Missouri, Kansas, Iowa and Nebraska

Remit direct by check or money order—or the editor of this paper, or your postmaster, will be glad to take your subscription. Prices outside these four states in the United States, its possessions, Mexico and Canada, $6.00 a year.

The Woman's Night Off

Every farm woman should have at least one evening a week to do with as she pleases, and to escape from family cares. John should stay with the babies, and you should have the use of the car or of the horse and buggy to go to town or to sewing club or maybe just over to see Sara Jenkins. This one evening should be aside from the times when you and John take the children to a movie or to the community sing—it should be an evening of absolute freedom, and if you'll tell John what you want with just the right amount of coaxing, and perhaps a kiss (yes, a kiss, of course) he'll be perfectly willing to give you a "night off."—Margaret W. Jackson, in Farm Life.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Sturm returned Tuesday night from Omaha, where they spent a week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Cleav Funk, and family.

Douglas McLean in "Home Stretch" also a comedy, Empire Theatre Friday afternoon.

We use t' be able t' hitch where we traded, but today we have t' carry a sack o' flour a half mile.—Abe Martin in Farm Life.

No Longer Loved Them.

"Have you any new attachments for phonographs?"

"Heavens no! We've been clerking in here so long and trying out records for people who didn't want to buy, that there isn't one of us here who feels the slightest attachment for a phonograph any more!"—Farm Life.

REVIVAL SERVICES CLOSE WITH 208 ADDITIONS HERE

Total in Whole County Is 692—Men's Class to Meet in Recital Hall.

The Revival meeting at the Christian Church closed last night with a large attendance and one more confession. All the new members were seated in a section reserved for them and the sermon was directed to the Church members.

The results of the local campaign are 208 additions. Twelve of these made the confession on Monday night at Bedison in a service conducted by local workers. Of the 196 who take membership with the Maryville congregation there are twenty-five children, from 12 to 16 years of age, seventy-five men and ninety-two women. This brings the total in the whole County to six hundred and ninety two.

The County Board is highly pleased with campaign and believe it to be the greatest of its kind ever held. The churches are all well pleased with their evangelists who served them and the county leaders believe it would have been hard to have picked a stronger corps of workers than the ones engaged in this campaign.

Evangelists Kellems and Humbert are a great team. Dr. Kellems is no doubt one of the greatest Bible preachers the local Church has ever had in a meeting. Those who have attended night after night have had their faith strengthened in the Bible as the Word of God and in Jesus as the Son of God and the Saviour of Men.

A reception for the new members will be held Wednesday evening of next week. All the regular services of the Church will be held next Sunday, with preaching by the Pastor both morning and night. The sermons will be evangelistic and it is expected that there will be several more additions to the church at that time. Baptismal services are announced for Sunday night again and all who have not yet been baptized should attend to this matter then.

The Men's Class has engaged the Recital Hall of the Conservatory for its winter quarters. All the men are asked to go to the Hall for their class sessions next Sunday morning. The tent in which they have been meeting will be taken down this week and stored away for the winter and will likely be used again next summer.

The Evangelists left on the early train this morning for Shreveport, La., whre they begin a meeting next Sunday. Shreveport is one of the strongest churches of the South and they will no doubt have a great meeting. Dr. Kellems will stop over a day in Siloam Springs to visit his son who is attending school there.

Douglas McLean in "Home Stretch" also a comedy, Empire Theatre Friday afternoon.

Rufus Allen returned this morning from Chicago where he marketed two cars of cattle.

OUR YOUNGEST COLONEL

Here is the youngest colonel in the United States army. The rules and regulations say that a colonel must be over thirty. But what does little Miss Enda Durnette of New York care for rules and regulations? Recently she became honorary colonel of the Seventy-seventh division, the ceremonies being held on Governor's Island. The youngest colonel is throughout the country known as a child actress. She will lead the New York parade of the Seventy-seventh division on Armistice day.
